Developing round 3 while a lot is up in the air

- Ambition: Simple, differentiated, recognize (well-)established internal systems and coordinated with overall governance
- Ministerial governance under reform – focus shift from dialogue around "strategy" to risk based monitoring of output and accountability
- Concurrently the biggest reform on HE in almost 20 years is being implemented

ENQA-review and EQAR-registration

The problem with 3.3 and 3.5 but the solution to 3.1

... while a lot is up in the air

- This month: The government agency will be restructured to adapt to the coming new governance system
- Layoffs will tell if ENQA or EQAR did the best evaluation of 3.3 and 3.5
