

12/10/2017

Cecilia George

Baltic-Nordic Admission Manual

A “Bakalaureus” is a “Bakkalárpróf” is a “Kandidatexamen”

Swedish Council for Higher Education

NORRIC-cooperation

Formous benefits in Nordic cooperation

Tools: projects, study trips, ad hoc working groups, common website , www.norric.org , communication in restricted area on NORRIC website

Sharing information: other countries educational systems and degrees; discussing recognition standards of degrees from all over the world

Learning from each others principles, procedures and systems of recognition

Automatic recognition on a regional basis

commendation from Pathfinder group on AR:
explore the potential for automatic recognition on regional basis rdic-Baltic project on automatic recognition for cess to higher education: website with info on rdic-Baltic degrees and recognition advice to

Is

Nordic-Baltic cooperation

Definition of automatic recognition:

"Automatic recognition of a degree leads to the automatic right of an applicant holding a qualification at a certain level to be considered for entry to a programme of further study in the next level in any other EHEA-country (access)"

"A bachelor is a bachelor is a bachelor"

In a Nordic-Baltic context –

"A Bakalaureus is a Bakkalárpróf is a

Kandidaat is a Kandidaat"

The Nordic-Baltic Admissions Manual

Descriptions of national education systems
Table with recommended recognition standards Project launched in May 2016

<http://www.nordbalt.org/>

The screenshot shows the website for the Nordic-Baltic Admissions Manual. The header includes the logo for NORRIC (www.norric.org) and navigation links for Site Map, Accessibility, and Restricted Area. A search bar is present with the text "Write search word" and a "Search" button. The main navigation menu includes "Nordic/Baltic Admission Manual", "Projects", "Publications", "Tools", "News", and "About". The breadcrumb trail shows "Home > Nordic/Baltic Admission Manual". The left sidebar contains a list of menu items: "Nordic/Baltic Admission Manual" (highlighted), "Overview of qualifications", "Denmark", "Estonia", "Finland", "Iceland", "Latvia", "Lithuania", "Norway", "Sweden", and "About the Nordic-Baltic admission manual". The main content area is titled "The Nordic-Baltic Admission Manual" and includes the subtitle "Nordic and Baltic qualifications and how they compare to each other". Below the text is an image of the flags of Finland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania. At the bottom, a partial sentence reads "The Nordic-Baltic admission manual is a transparency and recognition tool".

er statistics

Site launch May 2016

since May -17, approx 500 visits/month increase of site visits +22%, Q3 -17 compared to Q3 -16 visits to country sites have increased visits to recognition/comparison grid has decreased

Most users from Sweden, Norway, Finland, the UK and Denmark visitors to the site from over 100 countries all over the world

Cecilia George
Swedish Council for Higher Education
E-mail: cecilia.george@uhr.se www.uhr.se

Thank you for your attention!