ENGLISH AND NORWEGIAN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS – ATTACHMENT TO THE GSU-LIST

1. ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS:
In addition, applicants will have proof of sufficient English proficiency if they have:
♦ completed a master’s degree in English

2. ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS: the College Board no longer offers APIEL. Therefore, it is off the list.

3. NORWEGIAN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS – supplementary information
   If you are missing one year or two years of university education to satisfy the Higher Education Entrance Qualification (GSU), you can only meet the Norwegian language requirement with the examination in Norwegian or Norwegian as a second language at Vg3 level (393 hours) in Norwegian secondary schools. In other words, you cannot take the other options for Norwegian language examination in order to satisfy the Higher Education Entrance Qualification.

   The Norwegian language requirement can also be satisfied if you have completed a 9- or 10-year primary and lower secondary school education in Norwegian or another Nordic language as the language of instruction. This must be documented with the corresponding school diploma and in addition with a confirmation stating that you attended each grade of the Norwegian or Nordic language primary and lower secondary school education.

CHANGES RELATING TO ENGLISH PROFICIENCY, SEE THE LANGUAGE ATTACHEMENT

Warning about future changes relating to the exemption under paragraph 1

1) Applicants from countries which are members of the EU/EEA and/or the Council of Europe/UNESCO-Cepes, and who studied English as their first foreign language over a period of minimum 7 years at compulsory/upper secondary school, are exempted from the English language test. The applicants must document this or provide proof of having taken a recognised examination/test. In exceptional cases, applicants may provide proof of English proficiency in other ways.

The note says:

Please note: from the school year 2016/2017 this exemption will be changed to the following: Applicants from countries which are members of the EU/EEA and/or the Council of Europe/UNESCO-Cepes, must prove that they have English proficiency at level B1 of the European Framework for Languages (CEFR). Applicants who cannot document it, must take a recognised test in English.
